9. PROCEDURES FOR REGISTERING CLAIMS OR COMPLAINTS

Procedures for the submission of claims are detailed in your policy and are important. If you have difficulties in determining the correct procedures, please contact your Financial Service Provider, Underwriting Management Agent or Product Supplier for assistance. Generally, you are required to advise the Product Supplier or Underwriting Management Agent within a prescribed number of days of a loss, provide written details of the loss, provide proof in support of the claim, report any crime to the police and provide any other details that may be required by the Product Supplier. Should you remain dissatisfied with the assistance provided, then you may contact the Compliance Officer at the address provided on this notice. In addition, the addresses of the FAIS Ombud, the Ombudsman for Short-Term Insurance, are the Financial Sector Conduct Authority, are provided should your complaint still not be satisfactorily resolved.

Possible consequences of the misrepresentation or non-disclosure of a material fact or the inclusion of incorrect information could lead to a claim being repudiated.

10. NAME, CLASS OR TYPE OF POLICY

Full details about the name, class and type of policy involved are reflected on your policy schedule and are also contained in the policy wording. Policy schedules should always be read in conjunction with the policy wording. Should you require any explanation about the terms, conditions, exclusions, provisions, premiums, excesses (or deductibles) or any other information, please contact your Financial Services Provider for assistance.

11. EXTENT AND NATURE OF PREMIUM OBLIGATIONS

Your policy schedule reflects the premiums payable, the due date of payment and the frequency of payment (e.g. monthly or annually). When amendments are made to the policy and additional or refund premium may become due, such amounts are reflected on a debit note advice, on request. All premiums are inclusive of Value Added Tax (VAT) at the prescribed rate.

Financial Services Providers are authorised to accept premium payment on behalf of Product Suppliers and should your Financial Services Provider be authorised to do so, then you may make payment to such Financial Services Provider. Where a Financial Services Provider is not authorised to receive payment on behalf of the Product Supplier, your payment should be made in favour of the Product Supplier. Should you not operate through a Financial Service Provider, then your payment should be made directly to your Product Supplier or Underwriting Management Agent (if applicable). In the case of monthly premiums by debit order, payment is usually made to the Product Supplier directly, unless you have authorised such payment via your Financial Services Provider or other third party, who has authority to collect premium on behalf of the Product Supplier.

We act in terms of a Binder Holder Agreement with the Insurer and receive a binder fee. Our Intermediaries earn commission of up to 12.5% in respect of motor business and up to 20% in respect of non-motor business on the gross premium which is detailed in the policy schedule.

12. CONSEQUENCES OF NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS

The due date for the payment is reflected on your policy schedule, renewal notice or premium advice as the case may be. Your payment should be made on or before the due date / payment date reflected to avoid the cancellation of the policy. Should you fail to make payment on or before the due date / payment date, you have a period of grace for the payment of premiums of 15 days after the relevant due date / payment date to pay the outstanding premium. In the case of a monthly policy, this provision will apply with effect from the second month of the currency of the policy.

13. FIRST AMOUNTS PAYABLE

It is important that you are aware of any amounts that you will be required to pay in the unfortunate event of a claim. Your policy schedule and wording contain the amounts that you pay as a portion of a claim and your Financial Services Provider or Product Supplier can assist you with any queries you have in this regard.
